

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Eva Vanderhoof was a passenger to Vale Wednesday, to visit friends there.

We have two automatic Winchester shotguns, brand new, that we will sell for $25.50 each. This is a bargain. McBratney-McNulty Co.

Charles Riley made a trip to Vale Wednesday to return a bulldog to Bert High. Mr. Riley says the dog is altogether too frisky, it takes several men and a few boys to keep him out of mischief.

Goddard serves oyster cocktails and Tom and Jerry at all times. Let him show you.

There will be no books circulated from the library this week. The officers are busy cataloging the books and getting things in shape to open the new building. No date has been set for the opening.

Cleaning and pressing, ladies fine goods handled. Club rates on gents suits if desired. Cope & Dunnuck.

J. R. Blackaby was a passenger to Vale Wednesday morning, having been lucky enough to get on the jury list.

We use nothing but pure Neatsfoot oil in oiling your harness. $1.50 per set. Kroessin Harness company.

Duncan McRae has moved into his home here for the winter months. Duncan says the people of the interior of the county are well pleased with the way the fair election went.

Ladies tailors headquarters, reasonable prices. Cope & Dunnuck.

An open meeting of the S. & C. club will be held at the home of Mrs. Secoy Thursday evening, January 22. A conveyance will be provided for those who wish to go out from town, meeting place at the Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m.

Ranchers and teamsters wishing to have harness oiled should have it done now. Our charge is only $1.50 per set. Kroessin Harness company.

Miss Mamie Stillwell, of Portland, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Dell Taggart.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. B. Cronin Thursday, January 22, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Cronin will be assisted by Mrs. Day. All are cordially invited.

We have a good separator, a No. 3 Domo which we will sell for $45 cash. This is a new machine. See McBratney-McNulty Co.

V. V. Hickox is home from a trip to Portland and other points in the Willamette valley. He says they are having lots of rain there.

Born—Sunday, January 11, to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Weaver, a son. All doing well.

The new 1914 Indian has arrived in town and the riders are pleased with the many improvements. Let Olsen show you why it is the machine for this section.

Miss Agnes Carter, of Long Valley, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grove.

LOCAL NEWS

William Bontrop came over from Walla Walla this week to finish up on his naturalization papers. He was a native of Holland.

We can save you money on furniture. See us before buying. McBratney-McNulty.

Dr. Bartlett and H. B. McCune, of Vale, were in Ontario Friday. Mr. McCune is connected with the Oregon and Eastern railroad. Dr. Bartlett has many relatives and friends here.

Ladies cloth by the yard at Cope & Dunnuck.

Mrs. Esther C. Garrett, the nurse, is now located at the Farley rooming house.

B. G. Fuller closed his jewelry store here this week, selling his fixtures to Mr. Letson.

Beers, either Boise, Baker Rainier or other brews can be found at Ed Goddard's and he keeps them just right.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckhardt made a trip to Portland this week.

We have a set of buggy harness for sale at a bargain. McBratney-McNulty Co.

L. B. Rawls, who drives the wagon for McCoy Bros., was thrown from the rig a few days ago and received a badly sprained ankle and some bruises. He will be laid up for several days.

Dr. Prinzing accompanied Mrs. Bourke to Portland Friday.

Charles Kenyon started east with about 1700 fat wethers on Friday.

For Sale—young Jersey heifer. Will be fresh about January 10. Inquire at this office.

The Pomono grange will meet at Nyssa on the 16th. The members of the grange are arranging for an expert agriculturalist for the county and the organization of corn clubs.

Ed Tremain has purchased a barber shop in New Plymouth and will move his family there.

E. R. Orcutt was up from Weiser Sunday visiting with relatives and friends.

If it is a lantern you need we will sell you a No. 2 large lantern for 75c as long as they last. We are overstocked. McBratney-McNulty Co.

Nyssa has just received two hose carts for the fire department.

G. F. LaFrenz is going to install a feed mill at Nyssa. It will be located in the Owyhee Mercantile company's warehouse.

Some of the prophets predict a $500,000 pork crop in Canyon county this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Berr Wood have returned from Portland and other Willamette valley points, where they spent the holidays.

McBratney-McNulty Co. sell the DeLavel, the best cream separator on the market today. Machine always in stock.

Eighty dollars in currency was dropped on the streets here a few evenings ago and the finder will receive a liberal reward and be assured of the money reaching the rightful owner if they return it to Marshal Odell.

LOCAL NEWS

Ira King has been here several days this week visiting with his father, Judge G. L. King. Ira has been away for six years and notes many changes in this section during his absence. He is located in British Columbia where he is supervisor of construction for the Telephone company.

E. A. Fraser was confined to his home a couple of days this week with a severe cold.

20 per cent discount from now on to the end of January on all heating stoves and Favorite ranges. We are over stocked. McBratney-McNulty Co.

R. B. Ayers, mayor of Weiser, has been here several days this week looking after business interests.

Mrs. J. S. Jones was in Vale this week visiting with relatives.

E. L. Phelps, who has the contract for the lateral sewer will be ready to start work in a few days. He is assembling his plants and finishing up the detail work necessary before starting.

E. C. Eggleston, formerly of the Burns section, is now located here as the agent of the Oregon Life company. He will move his family here soon as he can secure a house.

Mrs. James Lackey and Miss Locey are visiting Weiser relatives.

Will R. King stopped here a few hours last week on his way west from Washington and registered in Portland from Ontario.

T. W. Clagett, who recently moved to Boise, has been here this week closing up some business.

Miss Pearl Wynn, who was formerly in the millinery business here for some time, has been visiting friends here this week.

D. W. Wright, of Wenatchee, Wash., is here for a month's visit with his son, A. A. Wright. Mr. Wright is a very enthusiastic booster for the apple producing section he is located in, but admits we have many advantages here in the way of stock raising.

There was quite a delegation of hotel men in Vale Wednesday for the Broughn trial. H. C. Whitworth and Mrs. Fisher, of the Carter house, E. D. Potter, of the Saratoga, at Caldwell and others.

There will be an open meeting of the United Artisans Tuesday evening. Supreme Master Artisan Hudson will be present.

Clover seed for sale—E. G. Harter, Villa Park, Ontario.

Bishop Paddock will hold Episcopal services in the Congregational church next Sunday at 4 p. m.

That the Ontario Auto company has an exceptional plant of machinery is recognized by the people of this section who need work done. This week the men are busy with rolls from a mill at Cambridge which could be repaired at no other plant in this inter-mountain section. It is certainly a credit to the city to have a plant that draws trade from such a distance.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Paid Advertisements

Money to loan improved irrigated farms. W. H. Doolittle Co.

For Sale—April and October pigs, thoroughbred O. I. C. stock, pedigree with each animal, at reasonable prices. Inquire of or write E. K. Ingle or J. B. Atherton, Ontario.

Wanted—horses to winter at $3 per head, per month at the Conklin ranch.

Estray—A yearling Jersey heifer at the Conklin ranch. Owner please call, pay charges and take her away.

Lots for Sale—3 in Riverside addition, near sub station. Inquire at Argus.

For Sale—White Leghorn pullets. A. B. Cair, 2 miles west of Ontario.

A watch was picked up on the streets here during the fair of 1912. Owner can have same by paying for this notice and proving property.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—Bay horse, black mane and tail, roached mane. Weight about 1100 pounds, half circle S on left hip. Suitable reward offered on return to C. G. Heslop, R. F. D. No. 3, Payette, Idaho.

Horses Pastured. On first class alfalfa hay, fresh spring water at $3.50 per month. Best of attention guaranteed. Scientific Poultry & Live Stock Station, New Plymouth, Idaho. Phone 9-3.

Confining our business strictly to LEGITIMATE banking, and with ample resources for the needs of our customers, we invite the banking business of ranchers, fruitgrowers, stockmen and individuals, Resources Over Half Million Dollars

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS
A. L. COCKRUM, President; H. B. COCKRUM, Cashier
T. TURNBULL, Vice President; C. W. PLATT, Ass't. Cashier
C. E. KENYON, L. B. COCKRUM, MONTE GWINN

Special to Men Mid Season

Cope & Dunnuck

Will give with every Overcoat or Suit from material in stock A Five Dollar Bill to clear out balance of woolsens

JANUARY CLEARANCE White Sale

Prices from 10 to 40 Per Cent. Off

Starting Monday, Jan. 4, 1914

Everything in the white line. Don't overlook this opportunity for bargains. $ $ $

We also have a few Blankets and Quilts left at very Reduced Prices.

Malheur Mercantile Company